Abstract: The collection is a compilation of studies and reports generated by Southern Baptist entities. Topics are related to Southern Baptist churches, associations, state conventions, Sunday School teaching and materials, user studies, church architecture, evangelism, youth, church training, church music, missions, women in ministry, deacons, Woman's Missionary Union, opinion surveys, SBC messenger surveys, planning documents, and analyses of products and programs.

Size: 32 linear ft.

Collection #: 837

Historical Note :

This collection is a compilation of studies and reports generated by Southern Baptist Convention entities. The Sunday School Board, the Home Mission Board, and the Interagency Council produced the majority of the reports. The research unit of the Sunday School Board focused on the products and programs of the Board. The Home Mission Board research department concentrated on regional studies, evangelistic methods, and statistical analysis related to mission, churches, and associations. The Interagency Council, which consisted of representatives from all SBC agencies, developed studies related to common topics and coordination of programs.

Scope and Content Note:

The reports cover the period from 1938 to 2002, with the majority from the 1960s and 1970s. They cover a wide range of interest related to Southern Baptist life and denominational programs. Topics are related to Southern Baptist churches, associations, state conventions, Sunday School teaching and materials, user studies, church architecture, evangelism, youth, church training, church music, missions, women in ministry, deacons, Woman's Missionary Union, opinion surveys, SBC messenger surveys, planning documents, and analyses of products and programs. Additions to the collection are expected. The collection is arranged in the order they were received and added to the collection. Access to the collection is through a database in the archives.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged in no particular order and maintained in a database. The finding aid lists the reports in alphabetical order by folder title.
