Historical Sketch

The Fellowship of Tennessee Baptist Evangelists (FTBE) has been a fellowship of full-time Southern Baptist evangelists from across Tennessee. FTBE held its first meeting in 1975. The fellowship has met annually just prior to the Tennessee Baptist Evangelism Conference. Membership is comprised of full-time vocational preaching evangelists and full-time music evangelists who give their total energies and time to the pursuit thereof, and are members of Southern Baptist churches in Tennessee. Bi-vocational evangelists and bi-vocational music evangelists may also join. Officers consists of a president, vice-president, and music director.

Scope and Content

The Fellowship of Tennessee Baptist Evangelists Collection consists of 1.5 linear ft. of material spanning the years 1968 to 2001. The bulk of the FTBE collection is correspondence, membership directories, photographs, programs, financial reports, and files on One Day Revivals. It also contains minutes, by-laws, reports, promotional materials, clippings, and files on vocational evangelists.

Other materials in the collection include correspondence between various officers and evangelists, including Jeff Brooks, Jack Custer, Marolyn Ford, Benny Jackson, Bob Kendig, Jerry King, Henry Linginfelter, Earl Taylor, and Don Womack. The collection also contains brochures and promotional literature of Tennessee Baptist evangelists, Home Mission Board forms for vocational evangelists, and materials on state evangelism conferences and a youth evangelism witnessing conference.
