Biographical Sketch

Reuben Quinn Pugh was born July 15, 1929 in Palestine, Texas. He attended East Texas Baptist College, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Oglethorpe University, Columbia Theological Seminary, Emory University, and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he received his D.Min. in 1972. Quinn Pugh married Norma Norris of Lake City, Florida, and the couple had two children: Ben (Reuben Quinn Pugh, Jr.) and Ruth.

Pugh served as an influential pastor and denominational leader in areas outside of traditional Southern Baptist territory for much of the twentieth century. Early in his career, he held pastorates in Georgia, New Jersey, Louisiana, and Maryland. He then became the executive director of the Metropolitan New York Baptist Association and, finally, the executive director of the Baptist Convention of New York. Pugh also served on various Southern Baptist Convention committees and as a member of the Board of Directors for the Home Mission Board. Pugh expressed interest in Baptist history, often portraying prominent figures in Baptist history and biblical characters in dramatic monologues. Pugh participated in the Baptist World Alliance and served on the Heritage Committee.

Quinn Pugh died Feb. 13, 2004 in Statesboro, Georgia.

Scope and Content

The Quinn Pugh Papers contains more than 57 linear feet of personal and professional correspondence, sermons, dramatic monologue scripts, information on Baptist history and life in the United States and abroad, denominational politics, newspaper clippings, photographs, local church records, writings, and files on pastoral ministry.

The collection offers a glimpse into church and denominational life in the mid to late twentieth century with its sermons, church bulletins, church newsletters, financial records, church meeting minutes, and correspondence from Pugh's pastorates at Jackson Hill Baptist Church (Georgia), Bergen Baptist Church (New Jersey), and Calvary Baptist Church (Maryland). Also included are files on Pugh's counseling ministry, as pastor, and his ministry as a deacon in his retirement.

The Pugh Papers contains information on Southern Baptist life and work in non-traditional Southern Baptist territories, such as Maryland, New England, and New York. Included are newsletters, correspondence, official meeting minutes, and financial records from Pugh's tenure as pastor, executive director for the Metropolitan New York Baptist Association, and executive director of the Baptist Convention of New York. There is information regarding the Northeastern Task Team on Theological Education, of which Pugh was a member, and articles concerning life in the Southern Baptist Convention, such as the controversy that engulfed the denomination in the 1970s to 1990s.

The collection contains material on the Baptist World Alliance, the Baptist History and Heritage Society (the Southern Baptist Historical Commission and the Southern Baptist Historical Society), the Georgia Baptist Historical Commission, and the John Gano Baptist History Fellowship. Pugh collected information on theological education from his alma maters (East Texas Baptist College, Oglethorpe University, Columbia Theological Seminary, and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) as well as other seminaries.

Media in the collection includes numerous photographs, audio and video recordings of sermons and monologues by Pugh, as well as audio and video recordings of sermons by other pastors.

Arrangement

Arranged alphabetically by folder title. Sermons are arranged by date and their order in the Bible, by title/subject, and by biblical text.

Provenance

Donated by Norma Pugh, 2008.
